

thé CUP Seeks Part-Time and Full-Time Barista/Counter Person

Tuesday, August 7, 2007

Find your next job here...

thé CUP is on a mission: a dangerous, yet very important mission, striving for perfection. We have assessed our needs and have found that we have a call for a few mildly-mannered, humble, positive, upbeat, futuristic, strategic, people who have an obsession with organic coffee and tea, who are ready to kick some serious barista rear.

thé CUP is looking for exceptionally talented, dedicated, passionate, detailed, hard-working individuals to join our team as baristas/counter persons. We aren't going to kid you; this is extremely hard work, not a ton of money and you will be the official "low one on the totem pole" to start. But we will attempt to teach you more about organic tea and making great coffee drinks than you ever thought possible.

Your job is to happily assist our customers with their coffee/tea/food needs. This is a real job and not for the faint of spirit. To make it better you get all the great tea, coffee and espresso drinks you want... for free. You will also be an important member of a fun-loving team of professionals and you will be training to become a full-fledged barista on our team.

Pay is commensurate with experience and dedication. No experience is required but it helps. Making the perfect espresso or serving the perfect cup of tea is a true craft and our goal is to treat it as such. This is not so much a job as it is a way of life... like being a farmer. It is often not easy, but it is satisfying. If you are ready to kick some barista butt then tell us what makes you the number one choice.
